Cannot Download Spotify On Mac

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL spotdl.com. The page has a dark background. In the top right corner, there are links for "Login" and a green "Signup" button. The main logo features a green audio waveform icon followed by the text "spotdl" in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font. Below the logo is a search bar with the placeholder text "Enter a song or playlist link" and a green "Convert" button. A link "How can I find the link?" is positioned below the search bar. The "About spotdl" section contains the following text: "Download your Spotify playlists and songs to MP3 files for free. spotdl is an online downloader that's fast, free, and easy to use. No registration is required to use this service, but upgrading gives you extra features." The next paragraph states: "To convert a song/playlist, simply copy the Spotify link into the search bar, click the convert button, and your files will be available to download as soon as they are done converting." The final paragraph reads: "Free users can download up to 500 songs a month with no metadata (album art, name, album, artist, lyrics, etc.) and a limited sound quality of 128kbps. These limitations are in place solely because downloading songs is a time-consuming and resource-intensive process. If you wish to download unlimited, higher quality songs with metadata, please consider upgrading to help keep this service alive and available to everyone."
